

Salutations and Congratulations!

You have been given a special gift that not only can be enjoyed by you but also by countless others for many years! We have been amazed by how well our books have been received. We literally have books scattered here, there and yonder all over the world! Not bad for a stay-at-home, "Bon Bon eatin' Mama!" The other authors who have come to us for help have had great success as well. It is so exciting!

We would be happy to help you share your precious gift! After all, "A book is a never-ending gift which makes one feel happily-ever-after!" (Kim Dozier) So are you ready?! Let's go!
